REMARKS BY THE REGISTER.

Some of the preceding claims have emanated from commandants, whose authority to grant permission to settle did not extend beyond eight hundred arpens, to which quantity it is conceived such should be limited. The instructions of Gayoso and Morales, seem to recognize a right in the settler after three years inhabitation and cultivation, commenced within one year from the date of the permission, or order of settlement, and continued for three consecutive years. In all such cases, it is supposed the claim ought to be confirmed, although the land has not been regularly inhabited and cultivated afterwards, if it has not been subsequently granted by the Spanish government.

REMARKS BY THE REGISTER.

Most of the preceding claims have been forfeited under the Spanish law, for want of inhabitation and cultivation; nor do they appear to be entitled to confirmation under any law of the United States. A few are granted by persons whose authority to grant is doubted, or, at most, upon so extensive a scale. In some cases the inhabitation and cultivation have not been commenced within the time required by the Spanish regulations; and, in others, have not been continued the requisite period by the original claimant or grantee, who had no power to alienate before he had complied with the conditions specified in the grant.

They have been revived under the 7th section of the act of the 3d March, 1819, and additional testimony has been offered in their support. But the testimony, in most cases, does not amount to satisfactory proof of inhabitation and cultivation, according to the Spanish regulations; and in those cases where the proof of inhabitation and cultivation are satisfactory, there are other reasons apparent, which invalidate the claims, as in the following, viz. Nos. 96, 99, 89, 93, 101, in report No. 6, which claims are founded on sales, the terms of which do not appear to have been complied with by the purchasers. Claim No. 104, Rep. 3, was reported for confirmation by the late commissioner, but not confirmed (in the opinion of the Register and Receiver) by the act of the 3d March, 1819. ## REMARKS BY THE REGISTER.

Most of the preceding claims were reported against by the former Commissioner, for want of inhabitation and cultivation. The additional testimony which has been adduced in their support, amounts to full and satisfactory proof of their having been inhabited and cultivated according to the Spanish regulations; nor does sufficient reason appear why they should be rejected on other grounds.

REMARKS BY THE REGISTER ON THE PRECEDING CLAIMS.

The evidence in relation to the above mentioned claims to lots in the town of Mobile has been collected in compliance with a suggestion of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, by whom the Register and Receiver were instructed, that town lots, where the titles were incomplete, were not within their jurisdiction, but that it was desirable the evidence in such claims should be collected, in order to enable Congress finally to dispose of them.

Many of these claims were reported against by the former Commissioner, and have been revived in virtue of the 7th section of the act of the 3d March, 1819, and additional testimony offered in their support. Grants of town lots, it is believed, were made in a manner, and upon conditions, essentially different from those of country tracts or farms. In grants of the latter, cultivation, as well as inhabitation, was required, as much for the comfort of the settler, who derived his subsistence therefrom, as by the policy of the state, which demanded the strengthening of the province by a population of actual settlers, residents upon the soil which they cultivated. The same reason does not apply to town lots, which are never granted in sufficient quantity to admit of cultivation to any useful extent. Town lots, it is believed, were granted only on condition (if any condition were annexed) of being built upon and inhabited within a limited time and for a continued period. By the 34th article of the instructions of Morales, it is declared, that all lots or public places which should be found to be vacant, either in New Orleans or in the bourgs, or villages, or those which might thereafter be established, should be sold for cash. Most of the above claims have originated since the date of the instructions, (17th July, 1799,) are founded on gratuitous concessions, not on actual sales for cash, as required, and are therefore void. A rigid adherence, however, either to the letter or spirit of the instructions, seems not to have been observed, even by the Intendant himself, who, as will appear by a reference to the claim of William E. Kennedy, No. 23, subsequently made that concession in violation of his own rule and without assigning even a plausible reason therefor. If it were consistent with the nature of his duty, the Register would endeavor to shew the impolicy of holding the claimants of lots in Mobile to strict proof of compliance with the Spanish regulations for the allotment of lands. He will only remark, that it has come within his personal observation, that a very large proportion of the granted lots has been built upon, and is inhabited by the grantees and those claiming under them, who are generally the ancient native inhabitants, and the circumstance of the uninterrupted possession they were permitted to hold of respectively held possession of the country, do not conform in their limits or bounds, with the original British map or plan of the town, certified by the Spanish surveyor general Trudeau, and now in the possession of the principal Deputy Surveyor Mr. Dinsmore; which fact appeared from the survey recently made by him of the public ground on which fort Charlotte stands. Should it be determined to adhere rigidly to this, or any other plan, great confusion must inevitably ensue in attempting to reconcile the conflicting boundaries, and serious injury result to many, whose principal property consists in their lots and habitations. In relation to actual settlers, it will be sufficient to remark, that they comprise the principal mercantile population of the place; that their improvements are generally the most expensive, and that they cover the most valuable vacant ground in the town, with the exception of that around fort Charlotte. The unsettled and uncertain tenure by which the granted lots are held, has deterred most of the considerate settlers from purchasing, and determined them to build on public ground, and depend on the liberality of Congress to grant them a right of pre-emption at a reasonable price.

No. 1. A grant from the Spanish government, issued the 20th June, 1804, by John V. Morales. This grant is void under the 4th section of the act of 26th March, 1804, which enacts that all grants for lands within the territories ceded by the French republic to the United States, by the treaty of the 30th April, 1803, the title whereof was, at the date of the treaty of St. Ildefonso, in the crown, government, or nation of Spain, and every act and proceeding subsequent thereto, of whatsoever nature, towards the obtaining any grant, title, or claim to such lands, and under whatsoever authority, transacted or pretended, "should be, and the same were thereby declared to be, and to have been, from the beginning, null, void, and of no effect, in law or equity." Nor can it derive any relief from the provisos contained in the said section, which require, 1st. That the grantee should be an actual settler upon the land so granted. 2d. That such grant should not secure to the grantee more than one mile square of land, together with such other and further quantity as theretofore had been allowed for the wife and family of such actual settler, agreeably to the laws, usages, and customs, of the Spanish government. It is further to be remarked, in relation to the merits of this claim, 1st. That from the date of the application for the purchase, the Spanish authorities in Louisiana must have been apprised of the cession of the province, by France, to the United States, and could not, in good faith, make grants of lands, and especially such excessive sales, after such knowledge. 2d. The title, in form, was not issued until the 20th June, 1804, more than fourteen months after the cession of the province, and six months after its actual delivery to the United States.

No. 2. This claim is founded on an order of survey, issued by governor Miro, in favor of Louis Boisdore, confirmed to his widow, Margueritte Daussin, by the intendant Morales, 4th April, 1808. Although a map, or conjectured plan, of the limits of the above claim, made by the surveyor general Pintado, the 30th May, 1810, accompanies the title papers, yet it does not appear to be the result of an actual survey, nor to have been made with geometrical precision, but merely intended for the direction of such persons as might be employed to make the survey; no survey appears to have been made. This claim extends from the Bay of St. Louis to the mouth of Pearl river, and is supposed to cover several hundred thousand acres.

No. 3. This claim was recommended for confirmation by the former commissioner, Wm. Crawford, esquire, as will appear by reference to his report, No. 6, claim No. 103, which report he was afterwards induced to alter, as appears by his letter, dated the 23d November, 1816, annexed to the record of the claim, in consequence of his belief "that it was fraudulent and ought to be rejected." Although we have received no instructions from the General Land Office, concerning the claim, yet the intimation conveyed by the annexation of Mr. Crawford's letter was too strong to be disregarded, and we assumed the responsibility of refusing to grant a certificate of confirmation, and to consider the claim in the light of a rejected one, which might be revived and additional evidence adduced in its support. The claim hath been revived, and additional evidence adduced, which amounts to full proof of its inhabitation and cultivation, according to the Spanish regulations, and the claimant disavows that his grant does, or ever was intended to include fort Charlotte, or any of the public buildings. In order to obtain a full view of the merits of the claim, and more especially to ascertain whether it would actually encroach on the fort, and the other public grounds and lots in Mobile, we have deemed it advisable to direct the principal deputy surveyor Silas Dinsmore, esquire, to make an accurate survey and plat of the said land, upon the return of which we will make a supplemental and full report of the claim, accompanied by our opinion of its justice and validity.

Report 3. Claim 48. The Claim of Joseph McCandless is founded on the certificate of Cayetano Perez, commandant of Mobile, dated 28th November, 1811; a copy whereof is hereto annexed, which states "That the Intendant General sent to him, for information, a memorial presented by Charles Proffit, soliciting a tract of land at Mobile Point, and the tract of land above mentioned, which he had solicited at the time J. de Osorno was commandant of Mobile, which memorial, with the information required, said Perez returned to Pensacola, to the Intendant. This inchoate claim of Charles Proffit, (if it deserve the appellation,) on the first day of April, 1812, was transferred by said Proffit to James Bready, who, on the 14th of the same month transferred the same to the claimant. It is alleged by the claimant, that the title papers under which he claims were destroyed by fire, which consumed the records of Pensacola in 1811; but, it does not appear that any subsequent proceedings had taken place, in relation to the memorial of the said Proffit, in the office of the Intendancy, after its reference to the commandant of Mobile for information, and the transmission of such information to the office of the Intendancy. According to the Spanish regulations, the information required by the Intendancy, in relation to applications for land, is the incipient proceeding, which serves as the basis of such subsequent proceedings as may be determined upon by the Intendancy; and this information is directed, in most cases, to the ascertaining whether 'the lands solicited be vacant,' and whether the grant of them would not operate to the detriment and prejudice of third persons." Commandant Perez certifies, that he returned to Pensacola, the information required, in obedience to the order of the Intendant; but, he does not state, whether the information forwarded was favorable or adverse to the application of Proffit. Admitting, however, that the usual proceedings had taken place, in relation to this claim, it is in proof, from the testimony of James Innerarity hereto annexed, (marked A. No. 3,) "that Proffit never did, either by himself or agent, at any time before, or subsequent to, his application, much less within three years (the time required by the instructions of Gayosa and Morales,) establish himself upon, or cultivate the said land, and consequently having entirely failed to comply with this essential requisite, in all gratuitous concessions, this concession, accordg to the accustomed stipulations and limitations, became void, and the alienation of it by Proffit, the grantee, must have been in direct opposition to both its letter and spirit.

Report No. 10, Claim No. 11. The claim of Regis Bernody is founded on a conveyance made to him by Joseph Gasper Munora, at Pensacola, which passed through the office of the commandant, as all authentic conveyances must have done, in the Spanish posts of the Intendancy, and recognizes the original grant or concession of the same made by the Baron Carondelet, in favor of said Munora, on the 3d March, 1792, which grant was produced by Munora, on the day of the execution of the conveyance to Bernody. The proof of the inhabitation and cultivation by Bernody, (until forcibly expelled by McCandless,) is complete, and the inference is strong that Munora, the grantee, did comply with the essential conditions of the grant, inasmuch as the instructions of Morales expressly charge the "notaries and commandants not to pass any conveyances of lands, where the conditions of the grant were not previously proven to have been complied with;" and independently of this consideration, the declaration of Munora, in the conveyance to Bernody, that it was "the same land that Antonio Espejo worked with his permission," made too, at a time, when it could not be imagined that any rival claim would arise, furnishes a violent presumption that the land was inhabited, or cultivated, by or for Munora, agreeably to the Spanish regulations. A full report of all the evidence presented by the conflicting claimants is herewith presented.

Upon the best view we have been able to take of the relative merits of these claims, were decidedly of opinion that the claim of Joseph McCandless ought to be rejected, and that of Regis Bernody confirmed.

REPORT OF EVIDENCE

IN RELATION TO THE CONFLICTING CLAIMS OF JOSEPH M'CANDLESS AND REGIS BERNODY.

To the Register of the Land Office and Receiver of Public Moneys for the district east of Pearl river, acting as Commissioners, &c.

You will be pleased to take notice, that I protest against a certificate issuing to Joseph M'Candless, for the place whereon the said M'Candless resides, called the Brick-yard, situate on the west side of Mobile bay, about one mile below the city of Mobile; the said place having been confirmed to me under the report of the late commissioner, William Crawford, Esq. by the act of Congress, passed the 3d of March, 1819, for adjusting the land claims of this district.

REGIS [R. B. his mark] BERNODY.

A—No. 1.

[TRANSLATION.]

Be it known, that I, José Gaspar Munord, inhabitant of the city of Havana, and at this time of this place, acknowledge, that I sell, bona fide and effectually, to Regis Bernody, free mulatto of the town of Mobile, fifteen arpens of land, front on the eastern side of the river, and on the river and marshy lands, with forty deep to the west; bounded on the south, by lands belonging to Mr. Francis Fontanillas; on the north, by those said to belong to Mr. Favre, formerly interpreter for His Majesty of the Choctaw nation; it being the same tract of land that the late Antonio Espejo cultivated with my permission, which was granted to me by his excellency the Baron de Carondelet, formerly governor general of these provinces, as may be seen by the title therefor, which I deliver to the purchaser, bearing date the 3d of March, 1792. And the said land I sell to the aforesaid Regis Bernody, free from incumbrance and mortgage, neither of which there is in this government, for and in consideration of the sum of one thousand one hundred and thirty dollars, to me cash in hand paid, the receipt whereof I do hereby acknowledge; wherefore, I give up and relinquish all right, title, and claim, which to the said land I had or held, and the whole thereof I yield, renounce, and transfer, to the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, in order that, as legitimate owner thereof, he may possess, exchange, sell, or alienate it at pleasure, by virtue of this writing, which, in his favor, I give, whereby he may be seen to have acquired legal possession without the necessity of any other proof, wherefrom I exempt him, and oblige myself to guarantee, in every lawful form, the legality of this sale, to the extent of all my property present and to come, with submission to the power and justice of his majesty, whereby I may be compelled to the fulfilment thereof, whereupon, I relinquish the laws in my favor with the general in form that forbids it. And I, Don Peter Palao, captain of the Louisiana regiment of infantry, attorney for the aforesaid Regis Bernody, accept, in his name, for him, his heirs, and successors, the present deed of conveyance; and, by virtue of it and of my instructions, I also accept the purchase of the fifteen arpens of land front, by forty deep, for the price, and on the conditions, hereinbefore stipulated, with which, in his name, I acknowledge myself to be satisfied. In testimony whereof, these presents are executed in Pensacola, this 24th day of March, 1813.

I, Don Mauricio de Zunega, colonel of the army, political and military governor pro tem. of this place, and of the province of West Florida, certify, that the parties have agreed as above.

Witnesses. Antonio Molina, Ignatio Cruzat, and Anastasio Montesdevi.

Witnesses of assistance for want of a notary public. Domingo Sausa, and José Ignacio Rebollar, who have signed with me, José Gaspar Munora, Peter Palao.

No. 2.

Peter Lorendine, being sworn, saith, that the land claimed by Regis Bernody, and lying on the east side of Mobile river, has been occupied by said Bernody about four years, for the purpose of making bricks.

Though the papers call for the land on the east side of Mobile river, claimant and witness say the land lies on the west side of said river.

NEW EVIDENCE.

Land Office east of Pearl river.

Before the undersigned, register and receiver of said office, personally appeared James Innerarity, of this town, who, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that, as far back as 1802, in the month of October and November, he knew the lands claimed by Regis Bernody, and by Joseph M'Candless, and that there was then a small brickery worked thereon, but by whom he did not inquire; that he afterwards knew Antonio Espejo to have worked it, and subsequently, in 1809 or 10, he knew Regis Bernody to be in possession of the land, who was supplanted by M'Candless under a conveyance from Charles Proffit. That he, the deponent, knew Proffit, and was for some time intimate with him, but never heard from him that he had any claim to this land; that he learned it, however, by public report, that he had obtained some species of permit from commandant Osorno, who was commandant here till towards the close of 1805, or the beginning of 1806; that said permit must have been irregular in its nature, or surreptitiously obtained on account of the land being in previous occupancy, and that, allowing it to have been regular, it must have become forfeited by the non-occupancy of Proffit, who never, to this deponent's perfect knowledge, ever struck a hoe into the ground or made any improvement thereon by himself, or by others on his account. That the certificate given by Losada, recorded in the commissioner's books, is irrelevant and irregular, inasmuch as, even allowing them to have been burnt, some notice of them would have remained in the office through which they had to pass previously, viz. the intendency, and, moreover, the originals ought to have remained in Mobile, the regular course being to keep them in the archives, and to furnish copies to the parties interested for their purposes. That the claim of Proffit, such as it is, was offered, for a trifling consideration, to this deponent by James Bready, previous to its conveyance to McCandless, but was rejected under an impression of its irregularity.

John Chavana, Thomas Blair, and Dominic Salle, being duly sworn, depose and say, that, to their own certain knowlege, Regis Bernody did inhabit and cultivate a certain tract of land, lying about one mile, more or less, from Mobile, in a southerly direction from the same, in the year 1809 or 10, and made brick on the same; and that they had no knowledge of Joseph McCandless having any claim or possession of the said tract of land, until after the Americans took possession of this country.

No. 5.

Sebastian Caro, being duly sworn, deposeth, that, about eight years ago, say in 1812, deponent heard a conversation between an officer of the commandancy of this jurisdiction, whose name he does not recollect, and his father, Don Benito Caro, in which the said officer declared, that a large crop-eared horse, which the commandant, Cayetano Perez, at that time rode, was given to the said Perez by Joseph McCandless, as a consideration for his granting to the said McCandless the tract of land whereon the said McCandless now resides, and which he uses as a brick yard, and which is claimed by Regis Bernody: further deponent saith not.

No. 6.

I certify that, shortly after Mobile was taken possession of by the United States, I was an officer of the United States service, and employed in and about Mobile; that I applied to Regis Bernody, living in Mobile, to purchase from him some brick for Fort Charlotte, which were made, with the exception of burning, and which were on a place now occupied by Mr. McCandless, and that the said Regis told me that he could not supply me, in consequence of the said McCandless beating and driving off all his hands, which were sent to work at the said brickery.

I certify that I was present at the wharf when Captain A. L. Sands put his name, with a pencil, to the above certificate, he being about to leave Mobile.

TRANSLATION.

I, Don John Miguel de Losada, minister of the royal revenues of the Indies, honorary contada, and treasurer of the royal coffers of the principal ministry of West Florida, commissary of war, and officer of the royal revenues, certify, that Mr. Charles Proffit preferred a memorial some years past, (en los anos ultimos) soliciting a tract of land in the district of Baton Rouge, which, having been submitted to the inspection of the officer of the revenue, was returned, in order that the ordinary steps might be taken thereon to a conclusion, and not having read the said memorial throughout, I cannot affirm positively that he solicited the eighteen thousand arpens expressed in the memorial now presented by him, soliciting that quantity, although I can certify that he preferred that petition wherein he alleges that he sold the lands he possessed in the said district, to defray the expenses he incurred during the time he was employed in drawing a map of the coast of Florida, for the use of Don Vincente Folche, commandant thereof; which, in the month of September, 1811, was submitted to my inspection, with another petition of the said Proffit, wherein he solicited a small tract of vacant land, lying in the district of Mobile; but there happened, unfortunately, a fire early in the morning of the 24th of October following, whereby the books and public records of this government were burnt, without the possibility of saving a single paper, in consequence of the rapidity of the flames, and in which was also burnt the petition of Proffit, the titles therein solicited not having been issued previously to that event. In testimony whereof, and in order that it may answer the purposes of said Proffit, I give this certificate, at his request, in virtue of a marginal decree, passed on the 1st inst. by the Intendant and Superintendant General, sub-delegate of the royal revenues of this province, in the practical ministry of Pensacola, this 7th of August, 1812.

JOHN LASADA.

I, Don Cayetano Perez, captain of the Louisiana regiment of infantry, civil and military commandant of the town of Mobile, and of the jurisdiction thereof, certify, that the Intendant general of this province sent to me for information a memorial preferred by Mr. Charles Proffit, soliciting a tract of land on Mobile Point, and another betwixt the lands of Mr. Favre, and Messrs. John Forbes & Co. which he had solicited at the time when Don Jonquim De Osorno was commandant at Mobile, which memorial, with the information required, I returned to Pensacola to the Intendant.

In testimony whereof, and at the request of the said Charles Proffit, I give the present, at Mobile, this 28th day of November, 1811.
